Member Profile – Roni Amber

Roni Amber is originally from Chicago. She started painting early in her life. Roni has painted professionally for the past ten years. She owns a company called Color Expressions Decorative Surfaces. She was inspired by artists in Florida while on a visit and knew this was the profession she had always been looking for.

Roni perfected her talent while studying in Italy where she mastered the specialized techniques. She has worked in several states and makes a prosperous living from her talents.

Roni is currently working on her West Coast Swing and is looking for someone at the intermediate level to practice with. She lives in Wellington (West Palm Beach area) and loves all forms of dancing.

Roni attends most of the dances around and is a very accomplished dancer. Ask her for a dance next time you see her and find out for yourself.

Her personal interests (besides dancing) are golf, tennis, and horseback riding.

If you want to know more about her business or just want to chat, she can be reached at: 561-795-7920 or 847-702-1629.

New dance in town

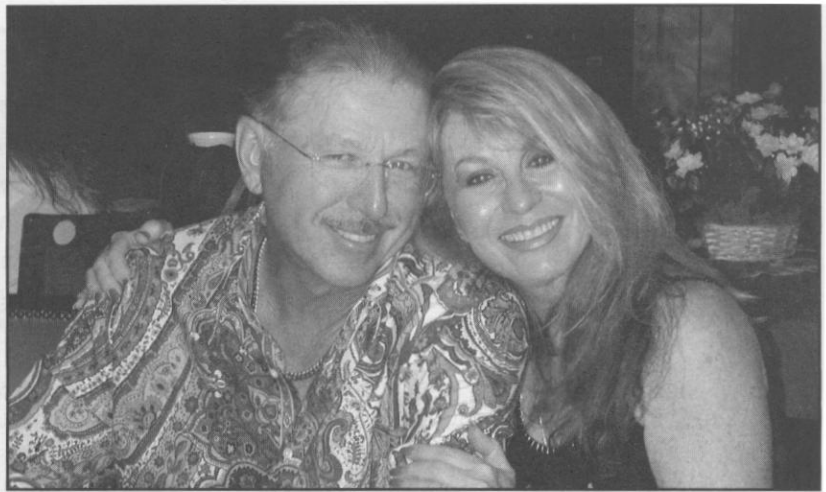

Plantation Elks Lodge is nearing completion of their new building two years after closing their doors on the old lodge. They are scheduled to have an open house on March 3rd.

Some of you may remember the old lodge in Plantation where the swing club held many dances. Their new building is a first-class operation. The bar area seats around 50 and the dance hall can accommodate 200. There is a separate meeting room, plus a room with a pool table. There are two executive offices and two more rooms for meetings or whatever. A full kitchen with all the amenities backs up to the bar.

A dance is scheduled there on Saturday, April 14th by Dance South and will feature all the dances, not heavily weighted on any one. Two-step, swing, hustle and the latin dances will be the venue. The DJ will be none other than Vicki Kay.

8900 NW 44th Street, Sunrise. 44th is between Oakland and Commercial. The building is one block west of Pine Island Road.

The President's Corner...

I have a request for members and people who think they are members. All memberships expire on December 31st, every year. When you come to the SFSDS dance, please show your membership card. A lot of people join in the middle of the year and don't realize their memberships expire on December 31st. If you don't have a current card (one that says "2007 MEMBERSHIP, expires December 31, 2007") then you are no longer a member. You can renew at the dance for $30 and pay the membership entrance fee of $7 or pay the nonmember entrance fee of $12.

We have had a suggestion to have another pot luck supper at another monthly dance like the one in December. This is Chris Underkofler's idea. Her idea is to have it in June, with a "barbecue" theme. We thought she had an excellent idea, so we are going to let her run with it. Chris has been appointed as chairperson of the "June Barbecue Committee". She will implement all the necessary details to make this happen. The club will purchase hot dogs and buns. Chris will coordinate the rest of the food communicating with everyone via email (sdancechris@earthlink.net). Those of you who don't have email, please jump into the 21st Century if you want to stay informed. Chris will send out email blasts when the time gets closer.

I have put the club's DJ equipment in the shop to have it checked out. We had a slight problem a while back (loose wire) and I want to make sure everything is working properly.

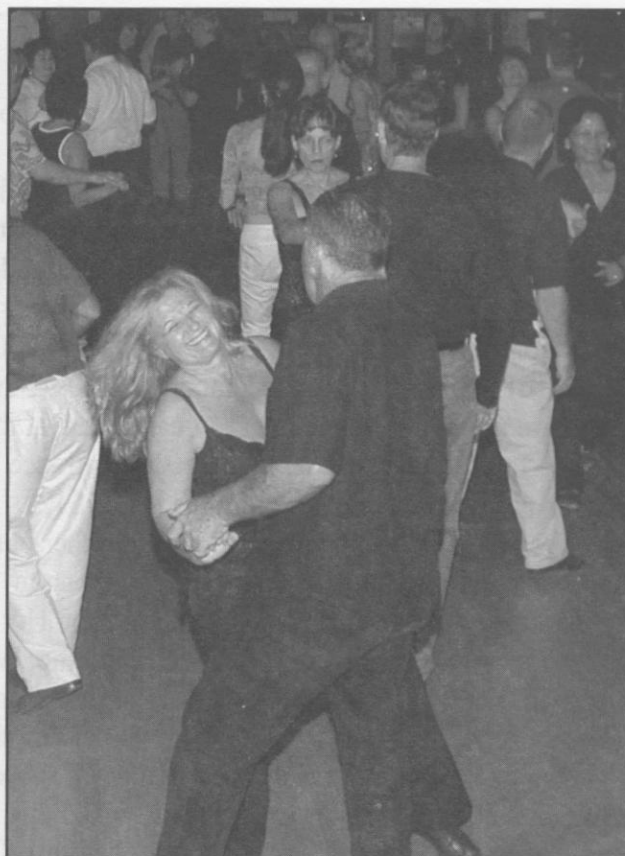

Memberships for this year are up to 174 already. The monthly dances are averaging 140 people.

I haven't been able to upload pictures to the web site lately. There is some kind of glitch that won't accept the uploads. The web host is aware of the problem and as soon as it's fixed I will upload more.

Rodney

Bruce Perotta had a serious accident

By Rodney Tison

On February, 6th, Bruce Perotta was involved in a serious multiple-vehicle accident in Palm Beach. A pick-up truck careened off another vehicle and crushed the top of Bruce's car. The roof had to be cut to get Bruce out of the car. Jerry Seibe was passing by and assisted by helping pry open the roof. Jerry didn't know that it was Bruce he was helping until the next day.

Bruce was flown to Delray Medical Center and then transferred to Hollywood Memorial Center. It will be a long recovery road and he needs our help. He remains in intensive care but is stable. Bruce faces some operations in the near future. There have been several benefits to raise money for him and more to come.

Watch for emails about his progress. If you aren't on any list, you can go to our web site (www.sfsds.com) and join our list.

If you would like to donate to Bruce's fund the following letter needs to be sent with the money.

Florida State Champions

Sue Watson and Joe Williams won the West Coast Swing Florida State Championship trophy in Orlando at Floorplay's New Year's Eve competition. This is the first time the title has been won by a south Florida couple.

Sue said they had so much fun doing the dance at the comp and that was what they had set out to do. Now they want to keep that fun going and hope that others can have that same feeling with their dancing. Many people had commented how much fun Joe and Sue seemed to be having and dancing as the music dictated. Apparently the judges noticed as well and awarded them the top prize!

Joe said, "I personally have learned a lot from all of this and will apply what I have learned in a positive way." Joe also said that dancing was the best choice he ever made for himself. He hopes that just one newcomer sees hope in him and it gives them courage to enjoy their dancing more. Joe also said, "Didn't we all come into dancing to have fun?"

Next time you see them at a dance ask them for a dance and share their fun.

Congratulations to you both for bringing the title down south.
